EDITORIAL

Last year on day one of July our country witnessed a major fiscal reform and that was the implementation of the Goods and Services Tax (GST) by the Government of India. At Balmer Lawrie we have complied with this new tax regime and were successful in the implementation of GST from the effective date i.e. 1st July 2017. Deloitte was appointed to guide the company owing to our diverse businesses, and the challenges that our complex business processes could pose. Congratulations to all the members of the Taxation Department, Accounts & Finance and Corporate IT teams who worked hard along with the Businesses to overcome all the challenges to implement GST. Considering the long term benefits of GST we must continue to comply with the rules associated with this tax regime.

June is a month when we are bound to think about the environment and our health as the world celebrates World Environment Day (WED) on 5th June and the International Day of Yoga (IDY) on 21st June. At Balmer Lawrie, these two days hold immense significance and various programmes are organised to enhance awareness on the WED theme and the movement of yoga respectively. As you are aware this year the WED theme was "Beat Plastic Pollution". Hence, let us continue our mission of saying "NO" to plastic and generating awareness in our own little ways. The Swachh Bharat Pakhwada was observed from 1st to 15th July. A host of activities were initiated to further the 'Clean India' movement. While we are covering the IDY workshops and activities in this issue of BLOOM, the WED celebrations and all the programmes held as part of the Swachh Bharat Pakhwada will be covered in the July 2018 issue of Balmer Lawrie Organisational Gazette (BLOG), our quarterly house journal.

The annual promotions for Executives and Officers were announced on 1st July 2018. The names of the employees, who got promoted, have been uploaded on the Intranet. The list in Hindi is being published in this issue of BLOOM. Hearty congratulations to all who got promoted and wish them all the best for their new roles.

As always, will look forward to your suggestions, feedback and contributions. Please email them to me at mukhopadhyay.mohar@balmerlawrie.com.

Happy Reading!
